

Louise Bray

Louise Bray has spent 20 exciting and rewarding years working as an English teacher, middle leader and senior Leader in schools across the North East.

In her role as Assistant Head at John Spence, Louise has whole school responsibility for communication, teaching and learning, CPD and quality assurance.

Louise cares deeply about young people and is proud to be working as part of NTLT, a team that strives to make a positive difference to the lives of children and those that work with them.

