

Amy Hills

Amy Hills, our Early Years Local Leader has worked in Benton Dene Primary School for 9 years in Reception and Nursery. She currently teaches in Reception and has been the Early Years Lead for the past 6 years as well as having her Specialist Leader in Education qualification.

Amy is passionate about all things Early Years but specifically creating challenging, engaging and purposeful indoor and outdoor learning environments in line with the new EYFS curriculum.

Amy recognises the uniqueness that the Early Years curriculum has to offer and has strong beliefs in collaborative models of professional development, observing effective practise and ensuring teachers, leaders and school staff are connected to each other, to relevant research and to resources and ideas.
